AccuVein® AV300 30-Day Trial Agreement

An Essential Tool

The AccuVein AV300 is as essential for venipuncture as a stethoscope is for examining the heart and lungs. Once put into use, the benefits of the AccuVein AV300 will become so evident it will become part of the standard of care for all blood draws and IV starts. Discover the benefits of the AccuVein AV300 in your clinical environment with a $100 commitment.
